PlanktoScope

Frugal quantitative imaging platform

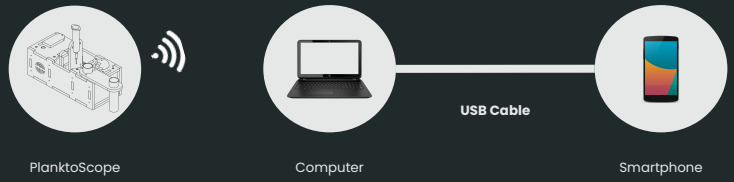
Tutorial :

Keep access to the Internet while using your PlanktoScope

Keep access to internet while using your PlanktoScope

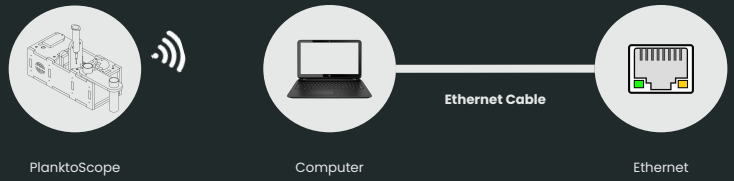
Solution 1 :

Use your smartphone's personal hotspot to USB tether



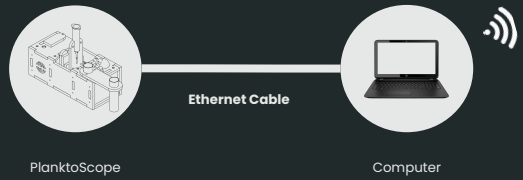
Solution 2 :

Use a local Ethernet port to connect your computer



Solution 3 :

Connect your computer to the PlanktoScope with an Ethernet cable



Solution 1 : Use your smartphone's personal hotspot to USB tether a computer

1. Connect your smartphone to the computer with a USB cable.

2. Activate the USB tethering

Apple : Settings / "Personal Hotspot" / Enable Switch / USB only - Link
Android : Settings screen, tap the More option under Wireless & Networks, and tap Tethering & portable hotspot.

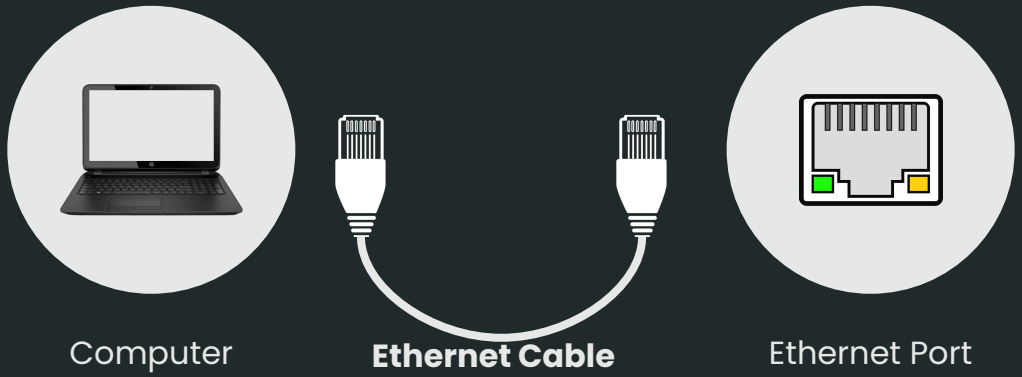
Solution 1 : Use your smartphone's personal hotspot to USB tether a computer

PlanktoScope | Computer | Smartphone

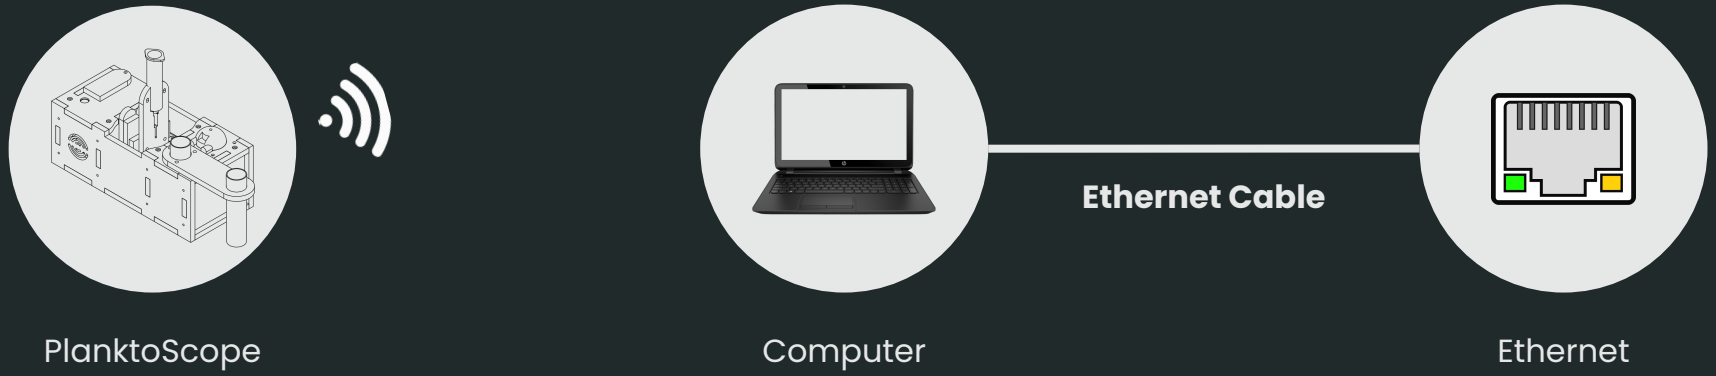
3. Plug your PlanktoScope
4. Connect your computer to the PlanktoScope WiFi (password: copepode)
5. Access the following URL from your computer : http://192.168.4.1:1880/ui

Solution 2 : Use a local Ethernet port to connect your computer

1. Connect your computer to a local Ethernet port with an Ethernet cable.



Solution 2 : Use a local Ethernet port to connect your computer



3. Plug your PlanktoScope
4. Connect your computer to the PlanktoScope WiFi (password: copepode)
5. Access the following URL from your computer : http://192.168.4.1:1880/ui

Solution 3 : Connect your computer to the PlanktoScope with an Ethernet cable

1. Connect your PlanktoScope to your computer with an Ethernet cable.

PlanktoScope Ethernet Cable Computer

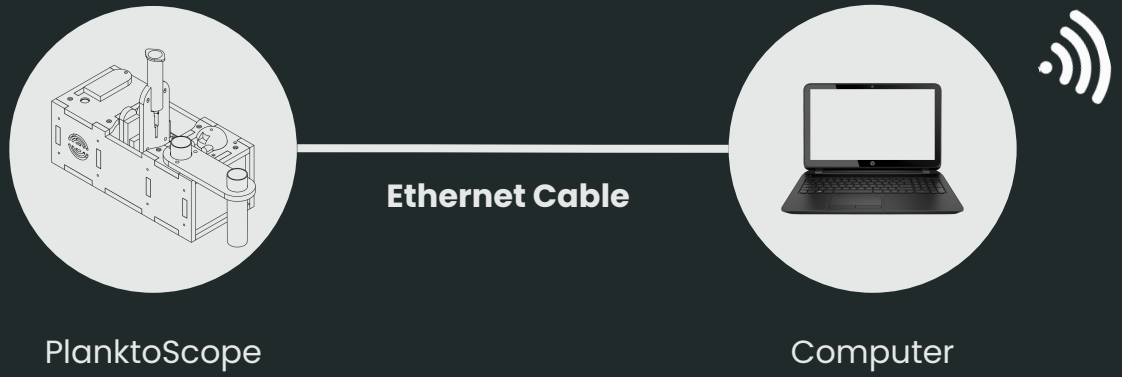
Solution 3 : Connect your computer to the PlanktoScope with an Ethernet cable



3. Plug your PlanktoScope
4. Connect your computer to a WiFi
5. Access the following URL from your computer : http://192.168.5.1:1880/ui

PlanktoScope

Frugal quantitative imaging platform